Indian Point guard pleads not guilty

By THE JOURNAL NEWS
THE JOURNAL NEWS
(Original publication: March 06, 2002)

An Indian Point 2 security guard accused of pulling a gun on one of his colleagues while on duty pleaded not guilty yesterday to a charge of second-degree menacing at his arraignment in Buchanan Village Court.

Michael Dahlia, 42, of Poughkeepsie was arrested at the nuclear power plant last month.

Only Dahlia faces a criminal charge, but two of his co-workers — the guard he allegedly pulled the gun on and another guard who was in the room at the time — were placed along with Dahlia on administrative leave pending an investigation into the incident by Entergy Corp., the owner of the plants at Indian Point.

The maximum penalty for second-degree menacing, a misdemeanor, is a year in county jail. Dahlia, free on a $1,000 bond, is due back in court May 14.
